The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 enables criminal convictions to become 'spent' or ignored after a 'rehabilitation period'. The length of the rehabilitation period depends on the sentence given. For a custodial (prison) sentence the rehabilitation period is decided by the original sentence, not the time served. Prison sentences of more than two and a half years can never become spent and should always be disclosed. It is mandatory to sign the declarations below.

Your application will be invalid if they are not signed as specified.

If you are applying as an unmarried or same sex partner, you and your unmarried or same sex partner must now read the declarations below and sign them. They must be signed by you (the applicant) and your partner and not by a representative or other person acting on your behalf.

By the applicant

I hereby apply for an extension of stay in the UK for myself and any dependent children listed in this form on the basis of my relationship with the person who has signed the declaration below. I declare that we are still living together in a relationship akin to marriage, or in a same sex relationship, and that we intend to do so permanently. The information I have given in this form is complete and is true to the best of my knowledge. I also declare that the photographs submitted with this form are a true likeness of myself, my partner and any dependants included in the application, as named on the back of each photograph.

If required to do so by The Immigration (Biometric Registration) (Pilot) Regulations 2008, I confirm that I also apply for a biometric immigration document for myself and any dependent children included in this application. I understand that the Home Office may make enquiries about any responsible adult nominated by me to be present when any child under the age of 16 included in this application has their fingerprints and/or photograph taken.

I confirm that if, before this application is decided, there is a material change in my circumstances or new information relevant to this application becomes available, I will inform the Home Office.

I understand that all information provided by me to the Home Office will be treated in confidence; that it may be disclosed to other government departments, agencies, local authorities, the police, foreign governments and other bodies for immigration purposes or to enable them to perform their functions; and that, if such bodies provide the Home Office with any information about me which may be relevant for immigration purposes, it may be used in reaching a decision on my application.

I understand that documents provided in support of this application will be checked for authenticity; and that false documents will be retained and may result in my application being refused and in my prosecution and subsequent removal from the United Kingdom.

I understand that the Home Office may also use the information provided by me for training purposes.
